ORDER:

It has been brought to the notice of the Government that the Prohibition & Excise personnel, Prohibition Excise Station, Mancherial arrested one Sri Macha Narsaiah, R/o. Bheemaram (v), Jaipur (M) at his house on 8.10.1997 for having prepared illicit liquor. On 9.10.1997, the accused was produced before the Munsiff Magistrate, Luxettipet who endorsed to produce him on working day ie., 13.10.1997. On 12.10.1997 at about 7.50 hours the said accused was admitted in Government Hospital, Mancherial in an un-conscious state by the Prohibition & Excise Inspector and subsequently the accused was referred to Osmania Hospital, Hyderabad for better treatment. He died on 18.10.1997 while undergoing treatment. A magisterial enquiry was ordered into the incident of death of Macha Narsaiah by appointing Revenue Divisional Officer & Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Mancherial.

2. Accordingly, the Revenue Divisional Officer & Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Mancherial conducted magisterial enquiry and furnished report. After examination of the post mortem examination report and also other issues involved in the case, the Revenue Divisional Officer & Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Mancherial has reported that the deceased Macha Narsaiah, had got injuries in the custody of Excise Station, Mancherial and it is the duty of the Excise personnel to look after the individual kept in their custody till producing him in the court. The Excise officials have failed to take care of the person kept in their custody and caused injuries in their custody only and the individual died due to Encephalopathy with renal failure. The Revenue Divisional Officer also reported that the Excise Officials, Station, Mancherial is held responsible for the cause of death of the deceased, Macha Narsaiah as the deceased died due to Encephalopathy with renal failure which is possible due to the effect of the injuries. The Revenue Divisional Officer finally opined that the cause of death of Macha Narsaiah is due to carelessness of the Excise personnel for which they are liable for action.

3. Government, after examination the matter, accepted the Magisterial Enquiry Report and decided to initiate criminal action against the erring Excise personnel who were responsible for the death of the individual. Accordingly, after following due procedure, a charge sheet was filed and the case was moved to III Addl. District & Sessions Court, Asifabad vide Sessions Case No. 376 of 2003.
